Summer Reading Program

Kids can sign up for their reading program starting June 9. Each day they read (or are read to) for 15 minutes or more, then can color in a space in the reading booklet. For each week that they finish they will earn a small prize, a coupon or pass and a chance at one of the grand prizes donated by local stores. Pick up a reading record at the Children's Department desk!

Summer Activities

Every Thursday at 2:00 p.m. McMillian will have themed activities, crafts, games, and snacks. Don't miss the BUGGY fun! Free—no registration necessary.

Summer Performers

Every Monday at 1:30 and 6:00 p.m., there will be a fun performer in the McMillan Fine Arts Center on the 1st Floor of the library. Don't miss these great performances! Free—no registration or tickets required!

Events Schedule

Monday, June 9, Bob Kann, "Go Buggy—Read—It's Magic!" 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Bob has been presenting great shows since 1982. Each show includes storytelling, juggling, magic, comedy, and lots of audience participation!

Thursday, June 12, Busy Bees, 2:00 p.m.

Did you know honey bees are the only insects that produce a food consumed by humans? Learn more about bees by making a paper hive, creating bee antennae hats, and playing some games. It's sure to BEE fun!

Monday, June 16, Ken Lonquist, "Love Bugs," 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Ken is a funny, enjoyable songwriter from Madison, Wisconsin. His kids' songs are flat-out unique—even old codgers and teenagers love them! His gift for improvisation engages audiences. He's known for audience interaction and songs made up right on the spot!

Thursday, June 19, Bugs, Beautiful Bugs, 2:00 p.m.

There are pretty bugs and there are icky bugs. This week we'll look at the pretty ones. Have fun getting your face painted, creating your own bug, and making a balancing butterfly.

Monday, June 23, Jeff Lang, 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts

Center

As a national act, Lang has made a name for himself as an eccentric children's magician. Children love him because of his silly character and peculiar magic—while parents adore him because he promotes positive messages to the children.

Thursday, June 26,
Creepy Crawly Critters, 2:00 p.m.

Worms and Spiders and Beetles—Oh My! Craft a click beetle and spider headband while snacking on worms. No real worms, we promise!

Monday, June 30, Jeff McMullen, 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Jeff McMullen will entertain with a variety of arts: magic, juggling, comedy, storytelling, mime, plate spinning, and balloons. Using audience participation, Jeff juggles things you never thought possible, makes things vanish at will, and will perform magical feats to tickle your funny bone!

Thursday, July 3, Shoo Fly, Don't Bother Me, 2:00 p.m.

Swat! There are a lot of bothersome bugs—especially mosquitoes! We'll be making fly swatter paintings, having a mosquito relay race, and learning about bugs that drive you up the wall!

Monday, July 7, Traveling Lantern Theatre Company, "Caterpillar Hunter," 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Traveling Lantern has been educating and entertaining children nationwide for the past 20 years. Their mission is to bring great stories to children, to draw them into an active theater experience, to excite their minds, and to tickle their imaginations.

Thursday, July 10,
Backyard Safari, 2:00 p.m.

Do you know what kind of bugs are in your backyard? Discover a few of the 10,000 different kinds of bugs in Wisconsin! We'll be having a mini-scavenger hunt and making buggy masquerade masks.

Monday, July 14, Skippy and Dave, 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Dave Parker is a professional ventriloquist/vocalist/guitarist. He has performed all over the United States. Skippy and Dave have entertained at over 1,000 performances!

Thursday, July 17, Book Bugs, 2:00 p.m.

We'll be making crafts Inch by Inch and playing games about some classic "buggy" book characters. Hopefully we'll have some Very Hungry Caterpillars to join us for snacks as we learn How to Eat Fried Worms.

Monday, July 23, Great Scott, "It Must Be Magic!", 1:30 & 6:00 p.m., Fine Arts Center

Educational entertainment incorporating Scott's unique blend of magic tricks, humor, storytelling, games, puppetry, and just plain fun. Great Scott will capture the children's imaginations and make them aware of the adventure and fun of visiting the library and reading books.
